Seasons Greetings

The Christmas Board meeting will be held December 13 & 14 and with visits by Deputy Minister Harvey Bostrom who sent regrets for Minister Oscar Lathlin who wasn't able to make this meeting. This time of the year brings thoughts of family gatherings, renewing friendships, and an occasion to review all we have accomplished and which professional and personal goals we did not meet.

Aboriginal & Northern Affairs Executive Director Freda Albert, Directors Jeff Gordon, Harold Smith and Karen Barker attended along with Kurt Penner Special Assistant and David Chadwick Special Advisor to Oscar Lathlin attended our Christmas Board and Staff luncheon.

Again the NACC Regional Meetings will take place in February and March 2008 please stay tuned for further updates. To assist in the planning of the regional meetings we are requesting agenda items from the communities. The NACC Regional Meeting represents part of the ongoing consultative process with Northern Affairs Communities. Often resolutions arising from the AGM provides the Department of Aboriginal & Northern Affairs with guidelines to work from.

This last year through the Northern Healthy Foods Initiative NACC has made and renewed many partnerships with the NACC communities and the First Nations communities by providing opportunities for neighbours to work together to improve the community in which they live and to beautify their neighbourhood. Partnering with Neighbouring Communities for a Healthier and Safe Environment

Christmas is a magical season. It is a time for families and friends to spend together. It is also an opportunity to give. I recall my siblings and I looked on the Christmas season with amazement. We saw our parents working extra hard to make sure our Christmas was memorable. We shared a special meal together as a family and we were fortunate enough to have a present to open. For many of us, Christmas represents that one time of the year where we can share what we have with those that we love. As a father and a grand father, I now have the privilege of watching my children and grand children enjoying this season. We must also remember those that are less fortunate.

My family and I want to take this time to extend to each of you the very best. May the Creator bless you throughout this season and into the New Year!

Reg Meade ~ President's Report

The Board of Directors is trying a new strategy to better service our community membership. At the December meeting the Board will be taking Strategic Planning Training to develop a focus for the New Year and to concentrate on certain issues that are affecting the communities. After the meeting we will present the strategic planning outcome through the Whispering Pines newsletter and on the NACC webpage. We would appreciate hearing from council members of what changes they would suggest or like to see.

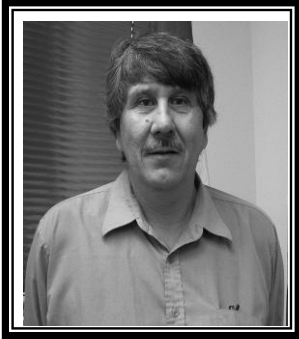

- Since the conference time I have attended meetings to address the following areas: Capital Approval Board, Food Security, Apprenticeship training consultations, Climate Change, Port of Churchill Announcements, Mining Conference and I have been invited to the MNO regarding the East Side Planning and Bi-Pole on the West Side.
- I also have been traveling all over the province for the Canada Manitoba Infrastructure (MRIF) announcements.

Helgi Einarsson ~ Eastern Region Chairperson

Here at Dauphin River we are having another terrible winter freeze up. The ice is piled high in the river and the river is backing up. Already part of our road has been flooded and detours are being used.

Hopefully the main part of the road and will escape the rivers wrath and we won't be cut off from rest of the world! I guess we'll see what Mother Nature has in store for us this season.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a safe and joyful holiday season. May the New Year bring happiness, prosperity and have a Merry Christmas.

Frances McIvor ~ Northern Region Chairperson

Seasons Greetings!

This is a very busy time of the year for everyone, with shopping and getting ready for Christmas and trying to make sure our communities are growing with positive progress. There seems to be many exciting projects happening in the North and I think many communities will be very busy. I have been attending meetings and on going discussions with board members of the Northern Central Development ad the Bayline Regional Round Table. These board meetings give us the opportunity to take some time out to discuss how our communities are doing. The staffs of BRRT, NACC and the partners are still working continuously. I am still working on setting up discussions with the appropriate people to deal with the issues on housing, health roads. I hope to have information for the Aboriginal & Northern Affairs meetings in February 2008.

I would like to take time to welcome Tracey Johnson and Kelly McAuley to the staff of NACC and if any one has the opportunity to go to the office please go and meet the staff. They would be pleased to see you.

Happy Holidays and hope to see you in the New Year.

The President, Board of Directors and Staff of NACC would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas & Happy New Year

Government Update

NEW COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTRE OFFICIALLY OPENED IN ILFORD

A new, $1.4-million community health centre was opened in Ilford today, ensuring better care continues to be available sooner and closer to home for residents of the remote community, Health Minister Theresa Oswald announced today.

"It's important that all Manitobans have access to health-care services no matter where they live and we're proud to have worked with the region and the community to build this new community health centre," said Oswald. "This station will enable staff to provide quality care to area residents in a modern facility, featuring properly-designed patient examination rooms, enhanced wheelchair access and secure supply storage areas."

A public health nurse and community health worker will provide basic primary, public and emergency health services. In addition, staff from the Burntwood Regional Health Authority will travel to Ilford regularly to provide:

- diabetes programs including dietician support,
- foot care,
- pharmacy support, and
- mental-health programs.

"The Burntwood Regional Health Authority is proud to officially open the Ilford Community Health Centre today," Marie O'Neill, chief executive officer. "This new facility will enhance the health care of residents in their own community with a modern, spacious centre we can all be proud of."

The project's contractor, Penn-Co Construction, working with the Burntwood Regional Health Authority, War Lake First Nation and Manitoba Competitiveness, Training and Trade, also provided an innovative workplace training component to the project. Five level one carpenter apprentices from the War Lake First Nation were able to work on the construction of the new station and acquire over 600 hours each in their apprenticeship programs.

"The construction of the community health centre was a positive partnership between government, Penn-Co Construction and our community with benefits to everyone involved," said Chief Betsy Kennedy of the War Lake First Nation. "On behalf of the community, I want to say how proud we are of our members who helped to build this much needed and excellent facility for our community."

The War Lake First Nation contributed funding to the training program.

"Through this project, community members were able to gain valuable work experience while working on a building that will benefit all area residents," said Intergovernmental Affairs Minister Steve Ashton, speaking in Ilford today. "Linking training opportunities to capital projects is just one example of innovative ways that we are developing our human resources in the north, as set out in the Northern Development Strategy."

Executive Assistant

Tracey Johnson was born and raised in Manitoba. Her father was a bush pilot and part time trapper as well as an avid hunter and fisherman. Her formal training is as a Legal Assistant; however, she has many years of administrative experience in a wide variety of industries. She has two grown sons and enjoys gardening.

Editor's Corner

Hello community members it's been a long year and we have been very busy in the NACC office working on details after the Conference ends and sending out the resolutions next the responses from the Ministers. This year conference was another success.

I attended an Awards Reception for the Helen Betty Osborne Memorial Foundation on November 20, 2007 which was to celebrate and honour for 42 young aboriginal people who are making their dreams come true. The Helen Betty Osborne Memorial Foundation makes it possible for Aboriginal Post-secondary students to complete their chosen field of study through the provision of financial bursaries bestowed annually. The amount of the bursary can range from $1,500 to $5,000.

On Nov 14 I attended a meeting for Frontiers Foundation, who have finally set-up shop here in Manitoba and are now looking for volunteers for their Housing projects. If you need more information or would like to volunteer please call Laurel Gardiner at (204) 778-7126.

In closing I would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

CANADIAN ABORIGINAL AIDS NETWORK
Announces Theme of Aboriginal AIDS
Awareness Week

OTTAWA, November 5, 2007 – The Canadian Aboriginal AIDS Network announced today the theme of Aboriginal AIDS Awareness Week (AAAW) by launching its 2007 AAW website: www.caan.ca/aaaw

“We need your voice and especially our Leaders to speak loud and clear about HIV/AIDS,” says Kevin Barlow, Executive Director of the Canadian Aboriginal AIDS Network. “Together, we can turn this epidemic around and together, we can make a difference for those now living with HIV or AIDS”.

Beginning on World AIDS Day (December 1st) and extending to December 5th the Aboriginal AIDS Awareness Week reminds individuals, communities and leaders that because HIV/AIDS does not discriminate it affects everyone.

To increase knowledge of HIV/AIDS among Aboriginal people this year CAAN would like to encourage individuals and communities to speak up because:

Your voice has power...

To create hope and healing
To protect yourself and others
To reduce HIV infections

To stop stigma and discrimination

Get informed and speak to those around you.

Now is an ideal time to engage your community about HIV/AIDS and how to reduce the HIV related stigma and discrimination too often associated with this virus.

All of the AAW materials including posters, booklets, fact sheets on HIV/AIDS and Aboriginal People, Protecting Yourself from Infection and Getting Tested for HIV, as well as Public Service Announcements (PSA) developed for radio and TV are on the AAW website which is linked to the CAAN website at www.caan.ca.

I would like to thank the Board of Directors for giving me the opportunity to be a part of this great organization.

Happy Holidays everyone.

NACC supports high-speed Internet and sees it as an important development tool for their membership. One of the major tasks of the NACC is to provide communication between Community Councils, Local Committees and Governmental bodies. One of the fastest growing technologies currently facilitating this communication is the Internet. However, the current dial up versions of the Internet being used in many communities can not keep up with the ever changing and expanding technology available on the web.

Some of the benefits are:

Online 24-7, No dialup lines required, Downloading larger files
Access to Internet technologies, Access to internet based learning tools, No trouble with being kicked off the internet
No dropped calls and Quick access to information you need.
